JUDGE PRESENTATION

Espen Engh was born into a dog family. Both his mother and his grandmother were active in dog shows and both had a great passion for greyhounds. Espen bred his first greyhound litter with his mother in 1975 under the kennel name Jet's. Eleven generations later, there have been 220 champions, including more than 100 international Champions in the breed. Four Jet greyhounds have won Dog of the Year all breeds in Norway, and greyhounds of their own breeding have won BIS at many of the Nordic region's largest shows, including Greater Stockholm, MyDog in Gothenburg (twice), Helsinki, Oslo, Västerås and Malmö, and also BIS at Windsor in England.

Espen has long had a great interest in griffons, looking for many years for a bitch to start his own breeding of the breed. Ch. Manticorn's Ariana was the first griffon. She proved unsuitable for breeding, but is still a highly regarded companion. Thanks to a close collaboration with David Guy (Donzeata) in England, Int.Nord.Eng.Ch. Roamaycee Royal Signature at Donzeata (Gladys, including BOB at Crufts) kennel's first breeding sting, and she was soon followed by Int.Nord.Eng.Donzeata Royal Silk. Gladys is soon 14 years old and in the pedigree of no less than 75 champions around the world.

The first Griffon champion of own breeding was the smooth Int.Eng.Am.Nord.Est.Dk.Ch. Jet's Moulin Rouge, the only Griffon bitch in history to become both English and American champion. She has passed on the legacy as the mother of e.g. Eng.Ch. Jet's D'Artagnan at Donzeata and Eng.N.S.Ch. Jet's Une Rose Rouge. Five English champions in Espen's breeding made him Griffon Breeder of the Year in England 2018, and D'Artagnan has also been awarded stud dog of the year for several years in a row.

After judging some shows at the Open Show level, Espen was judged in 1987. In 2011, he was approved to judge all breeds. He has judged many specialty shows and exhibitions for all breeds in a total of 98 countries around the world. Among the most prestigious assignments are 11 Judge assignments at Crufts, 3 at Westminster and a dozen at FCI's world shows. Espen has judged Griffons at Westminster and judges the breed at Crufts 2022. He has also judged the Griffon breed specialty club show in several countries, including the Swedish Griffonspecialen 2005, and looks forward to judging this year's Swedish special and Griffon Breeders Association championship show in England.
